PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Travis C. Jennings Academic Scholarship Program is an achievement-based award designed to support The Harvest Tabernacle Church high school seniors in the State of Georgia transitioning into their freshman year of college.

- Essay: As a core requirement for your scholarship application, all applicants must submit a 500 word essay
- Selection Process: The Scholarship Panel will review all submitted application packets and select three (3) finalists to advance to a formal interview.
- Recommendation Letters: Applicants must submit three (3) letters of recommendation. At least one (1) letter must come from a ministry leader, and at least (1) letter must come from a non-related external reference (such as a teacher, guidance counselor, or community leader).
- Award Distribution Requirement: The selected recipient must provide an official acceptance letter from an accredited post-secondary educational institution prior to receiving the scholarship.
- The Award: One (1) scholarship in the amount of $1,000 will be awarded to a high school senior who is a dedicated member/partner of The Harvest Tabernacle Church.
- Application Deadline: All required components must be fully submitted no later than May 22, 2026. Late applications will not be reviewed
